Glad ac know ledge ment they owe, — On this day a part.
Through the day no wrath must lurk, — to my God con signed.

3. Let me make a new resolve, that thy plans on me devolve;
May my life round thee revolve In a single aim.
As thine evening doth approach, May my soul feel no reproach:
Let no darkness there encroach on thy precious name.

4. Wilt thou take this one day spent, give me thine encouragement
Help return the blessings lent day by day to thee?
Lord my faults I do not hide, let them not from thee divide;
But in me deign to preside for eternity! ©
